Umberto is a certified tax advisor and a certified public accountant.

He has been tax director at the Milan office of the TLS tax and legal firm, member firm of PricewaterhouseCoopers tax and legal network.

He graduated in Economics and he has been enrolled in the register of Chartered Tax Advisors and Auditors since 1998.

He holds a Master in Corporate Taxation and Statutory matters at Catholic University of Milan.

He is experienced in domestic and international tax, M&A, transfer pricing and corporate restructuring with emphasis on foreign inbound and outbound transactions.

He is member of the international tax commission of the Milan bar of Chartered Tax Advisors and Auditors.

He advises on recurring basis Italian based companies and Italian subsidiaries of multinational groups with regard to tax and statutory matters.

He has been appointed sole statutory auditor, chairman and ordinary member of the board of statutory auditors of many Italian companies active in the industrial, transportation, commercial and fashion business (e.g. DB Schenker Rail Italia, Google Italy, Ideal Standard, Pearson Italia, etc.).

As per your kind request I may state that I am fully independent from PricewaterhouseCoopers and its network, as well as from other audit firms network.
